VISION

Safe and happy children living in healthy families and vibrant communities

The main goals of the program are to:

- Enhance self-esteem and cultural identity.
- Build healthy intra/interpersonal relationships.
- Increase the ability to identify and express feelings
- Promote movement toward personal growth.
- Identifies with the spiritual, emotional, physical and mental well-being of the parent(s) of the child in care.

Who is eligible for the program?

Preference for admittance are Peter Ballantyne Cree Nation Members either on–reserve or off-reserve. The program is designated for both male and female youth from ages 0 to 9 years of age.
The Receiving Home will accept into care, children whose parents are unable to maintain care as they are going through emotional, social, spiritual and mental difficulties.

All referrals are received from the PBCFSI workers ensuring that the children have status under the Child and Family Services Act. The Special Placement Committee reviews all applications for admission.

Program

The Receiving Homes works closely with the Child and Family Services offices maintaining case plans for each child in care as per the Family Centered Case Management policy.

The Receiving Home works with their local community resources such as Health Services, Head Start Programs, the schools and with outside resources as needed.

The programming includes services of Elders who ensure our children maintain their language, cultural and traditional values. Program provides children in care with holistic healing using traditional and contemporary practices and physical, emotional, mental and spiritual well-being and security.

Program design is specific to the child's needs

What is a Receiving Home?

The Program is a short term program that works with PBCN families who require additional support with maintaining the family unit. The Receiving Home uses traditional and contemporary practices to promote and enhance holistic healing of families. The program offers a continuous intake of infants/ children on a as needed basis, 0-9 years of age.

The home is a facility that is operates 24 hours a day and 365 days a year with the capacity of eight beds. The home provides all necessities for children during their stay.
